HOMESTEAD IN THE WILLOWS HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION

Regular Board Meeting October 11, 2011 – Unofficial Minutes

CALL TO ORDER: Board President, Reed Richardson, called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m. Board Members present were Aloah Kincaid, Chris Raab, Christopher Molke and Bill Shelden; as well as Business Manager, Katie Kidwell; Pool Manager, Jaylene Jones; Landscape Manager, Nancy Bauer; and Tennis Manager, Melissa Shuck. Also present were Swim Team Parent Representative Joel Sironen, Homeowners Albert and Mary Jane Cook, Mark Peterson of Water Ketch Irrigation and ACC member Jane Robbins.

MINUTES: The minutes of the September 13th regular Board meeting were approved as read.

SWIM TEAM: Parent Rep, Joel Sironen, suggested that Swim Team purchase a trailer they could park at the North Pool for all the Swim Team Equipment. The Board requested they review the covenants to determine if the type of trailer they were considering was allowed by the governing documents. Joel also suggested that fixing the lights at the North Pool might reduce some of the vandalism. Jaylene Jones, Pool Manager, replied that two additional on deck lights were requested in her 2012 budget. The lights bordering the fence next to the parking lot were only partly functional and too costly to rewire and repair. Finally, Joel requested the annual funding donation that the HOA grants the Swim Team.

FINANCIAL REPORT: Treasurer, Aloah Kincaid reviewed the financial statements. Most managers were under budget with the exception of Administration. The Landscape and Tennis Managers expect to end the year under budget. Pool Manager, Jaylene Jones, expected to exceed her budget by $60, and Business Manager, Katie Kidwell, had exceeded her budget in legal expenses and temporary help. Aloah also noted that the income for the Association exceeded what was budgeted because it included the Comcast deposit.

HOMEOWNER COMMENTS: Al and Mary Jane Cook approached the Board about an Architectural Control request.

MANAGER REPORTS

1. POOL: Pool Manager, Jaylene Jones, presented her proposed 2012 budget to the Board and then reviewed her requested Reserve Fund expenditures. Jaylene requested that the Board allocate funds to replace the North Pool diving board, the South Pool pump motor and add more deck lighting at the North Pool.
2. LANDSCAPE: Landscape Manager, Nancy Bauer, presented the Board with her proposed 2012 budget. The Board also reviewed her Reserve Fund requests. Nancy then introduced Mark Peterson of Water Ketch, the Association Irrigation specialist. Mark suggested the Board invest in soil moisture sensors. The Board questioned Mark as to the necessity of sensors and the proof that they would actually save water for the Association. No decision was made on purchasing the sensors.
3. TENNIS: Tennis Manager Melissa Shuck announced that the cracks at the West Tennis Courts had doubled in size and the cost to fill them had doubled as well. Melissa presented her budget for 2012. Board Tennis Liaison, Chris Raab, remarked that the tennis committee had reviewed the contract LERenner had presented for the re-build of the North Tennis Courts and had returned it to LERenner for modification.

4. BUSINESS: Business Manager, Katie Kidwell reviewed the outstanding HOA dues and the Board discussed the necessity of turning delinquent homeowners over to a collection attorney. The Pool buildings had been inspected in accordance with the Reserve Study. Only minor repairs were needed to the buildings and entrance monuments. Katie was still waiting for the results of the roof inspection. Katie had requested proposals from three new trash carriers as well as the existing company. Board Member Christopher Molke volunteered to review the proposals when they were returned. The Board reviewed Katie's proposed 2012 budget.

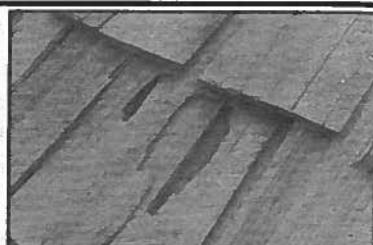

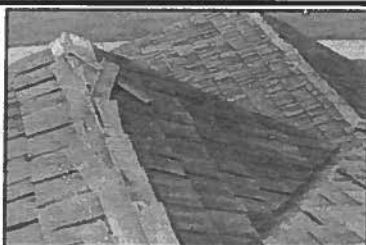

ACC: The Board welcomed ACC member Jane Robbins and thanked her for her four years of service on the committee. Jane gave the Board a brief history of her experience and qualifications and volunteered to chair the committee for the next year. She agreed to work with the other members to hold regularly scheduled ACC meetings and to solicit new volunteers.

COVENANT REVIEW TASKFORCE: Seven homeowners received letters informing them that a fine had been imposed because the taskforce had never received written notification that the homeowner had completed or had a plan to repair their citation. Two of the seven had returned the fine letter indicating the work was complete. These homeowners requested the Board waive the fine because the work was complete. The Board discussed whether they could waive the fine in these instances and decided it could not. Each homeowner received two letters before being fined and both letters clearly stated that a written response was necessary. The second letter notified the homeowner that a fine would be the next step if the Taskforce did not hear from the homeowner. To waive the fine would be arbitrary and capricious. The Board directed Katie to continue with the fine schedule as outlined in the Covenant Enforcement Policy for each of the seven homeowners.

OLD BUSINESS: The Board reviewed the proposed budgets presented by the managers, the projected income and reserve fund balance. None of the Board members wanted to raise homeowner dues in 2012. The Board agreed that the proposed budgets were sound and proceeded to review the reserve fund requests. The Board tentatively approved $66,175 of reserve fund requests as well as the funding of the North Tennis Court re-build. Pending receipt of final numbers on some budget line items, including the trash contract, the Board will finalize the budget in November and set the 2012 dues.

NEW BUSINESS: The Board directed Katie interview collection attorneys and to formalize the Covenant Violation process from the initial report to the notification of the affected homeowner, noting that the process was unofficial and could vary on a case-by-case basis.

ADJOURNMENT AND CALENDARING: The meeting adjourned at 9:34 p.m. Chris R. moved and Christopher M. seconded that the Board move into Executive Session at 9:35 p.m. to discuss the Dunbar-Hornek Lawsuit and Manager salaries. Motion Passed. The next regular Board Meeting will be on Tuesday, November 8th at 6:30pm at the Business Office.

BOARD POSITIONS OPEN

We need volunteers to serve on our Board of Directors. New Board members are voted in at our Annual Meeting in March 2012 for a term of three years. This is a great opportunity to get involved in our community.

Homestead is a self-managed HOA. Our Board of Directors, along with our managers and committee volunteers manage all of the affairs for our community. The actions and decisions of Board Members are made on behalf of our collective homeowner community, and are guided by primary governing documents.

Volunteers for Board Positions will review budgets and required operations activities to maintain the existing community property and on-going community activities. They will also make decisions and set aside reserve funds for projected needs as our community ages.

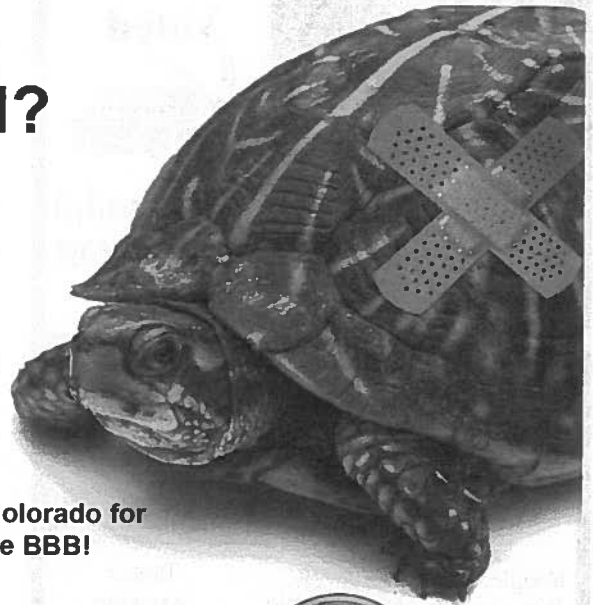

Serving on the Board allows you to use your experience and knowledge to benefit your community. You get to meet a lot of your neighbors, gain insights and information about our community and serve with some good hearted homeowners.

Please consider volunteering your time to Homestead. If you have any questions feel free to call any of the current Board members whose telephone numbers are on page two of this publication.

LANDSCAPE LOGIC

By Nancy Bauer

Getting Ready for Winter

The plants in our landscapes are transferring energy to their root systems, preparing for winter and getting ready for spring growth. We can also get our landscapes ready for the onset of winter. The following suggestions may help you with a winter preparation 'checklist':

Lawns

*Mow at a two to three inch height. Research shows that mowing to less than two inches can result in decreased drought tolerance and higher incidence of insects, diseases and weeds.

*During extended winter dry periods, it is good practice to water the lawn once per month, if the ground is thawed and will absorb water. Pay attention to exposed slopes, south or west facing exposures. These areas can become excessively dry and may be prone to spider mite infestation.

Trees

*November – March is the best time to prune certain trees, such as Crabapple, Hawthorne, and various fruit trees such as cherry, apple and pear susceptible to 'fireblight', a fungal disease.

*Dead limbs can be pruned any time.

*Dispose of diseased leaves, especially if you had insect or disease problems this summer. Left on the ground, they can re-infect your plants in spring.

*If possible water trees once per month, but only when air temperatures are above 40 degrees and water at mid-day to allow adequate saturation before freezing at night.

Perennials

*Perennials that provide winter interest or seed for the birds should be left standing until early spring, which also prevents the crowns from winterkill.

*Ornamental grasses add texture, as well as food and cover for birds in the fall and winter. Cut these back in early spring, before new growth emerges.

Mulch

*With roses, it is important to protect the crowns, before the first hard freeze occurs; a mixture of soil and leaves or pine needles covering the first 6-8" above ground works well.

*After soil has frozen, mulch other flowerbeds and specimen plants. Shredded wood products or leaf compost makes good mulch.

Watering

*In dry winters, all shrubs benefit from supplemental watering, but trees and shrubs planted this summer are still adapting and need more water than plants that have been in the soil for at least one year.

*For more information on watering during the winter, see CSU Extension Fact sheet # 7.211 "Fall and Winter Watering".

Tool and Planters

*Take time to clean, oil and sharpen your gardening tools. Wash them with soap and water, using a wire brush to remove stubborn soil deposits. Steel wool is useful to remove rust.

*Sharpen pruners and shovel blades. This is also a good time to remove and sharpen mower blades.

*Before storing tools, wipe with a lubricating oil to prevent rust.

*Remember to empty ceramic pots to prevent cracking caused by freezes and thaw cycles.

CLEANING EXPERTS

The Coyotes are back.

By John T. Skalet,

Self appointed Homestead dog advocate

This is not new news to those of you homesteaders who sleep with your windows open this time of the year because you enjoy the cool fresh air and the paramedic sirens in the middle of the night. You probably are also hearing the coyote pups singing with the sirens like the choir to the organist. The horticultural rabbit haters are happy to think that the Coyotes are back, the rabbits and squirrels are scared stiff, the parents with rug rats are nervous and the Homesteaders with small dogs have the most to be worried about. In the rising sun morning hours, my Washington State neighbor let out her very small and sweet 6 year old white Pekinese out in her yard and he never knew what hit him. The coyote was looking for breakfast for herself and her half dozen pups. I'm telling you this story, not to make you either sick to your stomach or heart sick but only to illustrate how easily this can happen. If your dog is much larger than a Pekinese, don't think your dog is free of danger, these Coyotes are clever, especially when they are hungry but especially when they have pups that are crying to mom for food. One adult Coyote will venture away from the pack to lure a larger dog that is not on a leash. Naturally, most dogs will chase the Coyote back to the pack where the domestic dog is surrounded by the pack and you can guess the rest of the story. We are all responsible for the safety of our pets. Have all dogs on a leash if you are outside of a high fenced yard. At night or in the early morning, have your dog on a short leash even when you take them out in your own back yard. Coyotes are somewhat afraid of you because you are a human but they are not afraid at all of your dog. Have something in your other hand that makes a lot of noise.

Remember to give those preventative Heartworm pills until 30 days after we've seen the last mosquito.

HONORING OUR VETERANS

On Oct. 10, the Cherry Creek Schools Board of Education passed a resolution declaring the week of Nov. 7-11 "Veterans Week" in the Cherry Creek School District. During that week, the district and our schools will hold special events honoring veterans and active duty military personnel. The community is cordially invited to join us for these special celebrations. Check the district website, www.cherrycreekschools.org, for a list of Veterans Week events.

CHERRY CREEK SCHOOLS CARE LINE HAS NEW LOOK, SAME IMPORTANT PURPOSE

After the 1999 tragedy at Columbine High School, the Cherry Creek School District established the Care Line (720-554-2273 or careline@cherrycreekschools.org) as part of its ongoing school safety efforts, which emphasize the importance of prevention, positive school climate, and physical and psychological safety measures.

In the past 12 years, the Care Line has been used by many students, parents and community members to report potentially dangerous behavior or unsafe situations. Reports can be made anonymously. Last year, about one-third of Care Line calls or emails involved conflict situations. Another third were related to suicidal thoughts or behaviors and the final third related to a variety of issues including drugs/alcohol, potential cyber crimes, threats and weapons.

To increase awareness of the Care Line, the district used funds from a Safe and Drug Free Schools grant to create posters, magnets, stickers and business cards highlighting the Care Line.

When a call or email comes in to the Care Line, a team of district administrators and safety and security personnel are alerted to the message and read the email or listen to the phone call. The situation is investigated in a variety of ways depending upon the nature of the information.

CENTENNIAL NEWS

Bike Lanes in Centennial

The City of Centennial recently completed construction of 18 miles of new on-street bike lanes with striping and signage throughout the City. This project is part of a city-wide biking network connecting parks, schools, and existing trails. The use and restrictions of bike lanes is currently governed by the official signage and markings placed along the roadway. The City has placed and will continue to maintain traffic control devices such as directional signage on its streets and highways to regulate, warn, or guide traffic conforming to the Model of Traffic Code (MTC) and the Manual for Uniform Traffic Control Devices (MUTCD).

There are many safety rules to follow when driving or riding in Centennial. A few safety measures to keep in mind are:

Bicycles do ride in the right-hand most lane of traffic, or in designated bicycle lanes; when being overtaken by another vehicle they should ride as close to the right-hand side of the road as practical.

Parking was generally not changed as a result of the bike lane program this year. If a parking lane is striped between the curb and bike lane, do park in it. If there is no parking lane between the curb and bike lane, do not park in the bike lane. Do not park in any area that is signed for No Parking or is in a travel lane along a street.

Do share the lane with bicyclists. "Sharrows", painted bike symbols on the pavement indicate to drivers to share the lane with bicyclists.

When making a right-hand turn along a marked bike lane do move into the bike lane before the intersection, first signaling the lane merge, then yielding to any bicycles in the lane, then merging right to the curb lane, then finally making the actual turn when safe.

Do not drive in designated bike lanes unless turning in or out of access points – and even then, bicyclists always have the right-of-way when traveling in a bicycle lane.

For more information, call the City of Centennial at (303) 325-8000, or visit the "Open Space" page under the "Leisure" tab at www.centennialcolorado.com.
